

We Value Your FRIENDSHIP

Without friendship and confidence no business can succeed.

To the fact that we have been so fortunate as to command and hold your friendship, do we attribute the success that has been ours.

For your confidence we wish to express our gratitude, for your generous support and patronage, our sincere thanks.

With the assurance that in the years to come we will strive to increase your friendship and more fully merit your support, we are

Your Friends,

Genuine Appreciation

To Our Friends and Patrons:

As the year 1916 has passed into history I desire to extend to you these few and simple words of genuine appreciation of your splendid support during the past twelve months.

No purchase has been too small to merit our warmest thanks. No act of courtesy to me has been overlooked. All have their place in the green spot of my memory.

We extend to you the warmest greetings of the season, and bespeak for you and those dear to you the ultimate measure of happiness and prosperity during the coming year and the years to follow.

My fortune deal as kindly to you in the future as you have dealt with me in the past, is our earnest wish.

SINCERELY,

Luke Dennis

When you feel too tired to work, when dark puffs appear under your eyes, when you wake up weary, with backache or pains in sides and loins, when muscles and bones ache, when you suffer rheumatic twinges, when lumbago puts you down, then you know the kidneys are weakened or disordered. Mrs. T. J. Bucknell, Route 1, Hardy, Neb., writes: "I am recovering from an attack of lumbago, by the aid of Foley Kidney Pills. They surely have helped me."—Sold by Luke B. Anderson, Gainesboro, Tenn.

VIVA LEE HOLLAND WINS TWO DOLLARS IN SENTINEL CORN GUESSING CONTEST.

We the undersigned parties do hereby certify that we have this day counted the corn in the Sentinel contest, and also opened the box containing the guesses, and that there were 1571 grains of corn on the two ears. And after comparing all the guesses carefully, we find that Miss Viva Lee Holland wins the two dollars her guess being 1572.

Flavy Pate, the next nearest, his guess being 1590.

WHAT TO DO FOR BAD COLDS.

If you want a cough medicine that gives quick and sure action in healing colds, coughs, and croup, get Foley's Honey and Tar. It heals inflamed or swollen membranes in throat, chest and bronchial tubes; breaks up tight coughs, loosens the phlegm, and makes breathing easier, stops tickling in the throat. W. F. Thomas, Summerville, Ga., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is a most efficient remedy for coughs, hoarseness, etc. I have used it with excellent results."—Sold by L. B. Anderson, Gainesboro, Tenn.

FOR SALE.

One pair of good mules; 3 year old horse; 3 milk cows; 1 mower; 1 rake; 3 plows. Will sell for cash, or good note.

EGHTY-SEVEN YEARS OLD

Backache, sore muscles, stiff joints, dark and puffed under eyes and bladder disorders are symptoms of diseased kidneys. H. H. Adams, Springfield, Mo., writes: "I had a very severe attack of kidney trouble. I am getting old, eighty-seven. I tried different treatments, but none did me so much good as Foley Kidney Pills. I consider it the best." Foley Kidney Pills are in action, and quick to give good results.—Sold by L. B. Anderson, Gainesboro, Tenn.

Thank You Again

All during the year just closed I have thanked the people of this community individually for their generous patronage and support, which has enabled me to share liberally in the prosperity of the country. Those thanks have been extend to you "over the counter and face to face."

I take this method of thanking you publicly and through the Sentinel for your loyal support, and beg to assure you again that I will always give you the best that is in my service and the best in quality for your money.

We extend to you the greetings of the season, with the earnest wish that 1917 may be a year of unexampled prosperity and happiness for you.

TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE CONVENES.

The sixtieth general assembly of the state of Tennessee convened in the capitol in Nashville Monday at noon and will remain in session for seventy-five days or more. The senate perfected organization yesterday and the house will do so by noon today. The two houses will today notify the governor that they are ready for business. Gov. Rye will communicate a message to the assembly today in which he will call attention to matters which should have immediate consideration. Later on he will communicate other messages touching on various subjects which require action.

The present general assembly is composed of 132 members, thirty-three in the senate and ninety-nine in the house of representatives. Of the membership ninety-nine are democrats and thirty-three are republicans.

The senate elected Hon. W. R. Crabtree of Chattanooga, senator from the Eighth district, speaker, while the democratic caucus of the house of representative nominated Hon. Clyde Shropshire of Nashville; a representative from Davidson county, as speaker. This followed three or four days of active campaigning and maneuvering, but was exceptional in one way. The result was not accurately foreshadowed before the party caucuses met.

Speaker Crabtree was elected on the first ballot, while Speaker Shropshire was nominated on the sixth ballot. In the contests for other offices of the two branches of the legislature there was not the keen interest that was manifest in the battles for speakership. With the organizations perfected in the two branches the decks are cleared for business.

In the distribution of its favors the assembly was disposed to be fair. Seven positions were filled in the senate and five in the house. Of the twelve positions, all congressional districts of the state received one or more with the exception of the First, Second and Tenth districts, the ends of the state so to speak. The Fifth district took the lion's share of the honors, electing three of its residents to places—Carter of Marshall county, chief clerk of the senate; Hawes a page in the senate, and Thronberry sergeant-at-arms of the house. The Seventh, Eighth, and ninth congressional districts landed two positions each. The successful candidates from the Seventh were: Miss McEwen, engrossing clerk in the house, and Herner, a page in the senate. The winners from the Eighth district were the two assistant clerks of the houses—Bennett of Madison county, in the senate, and Wilson of Henry county, in the house. The pickings for the Ninth district were: Miss Doyle of Dyer, engrossing clerk of the senate, and Chief Clerk Green of Haywood county, of the house. The Fourth district took down the place of sergeant-at-arms of the senate for Johnson of Smith county. The Sixth district won a speakership with Shropshire, and the Third congressional district carried off the prize of the senate, the speakership with Crabtree.

THIS—AND FIVE CENTS:

DON'T MISS THIS. Cut out this slip, enclose five cents to Foley & Co., 2835 Sheffield Ave., (Chicago, Ill.), writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, for bronchial coughs, colds and croup; Foley Kidney Pills, for pain in sides and back, rheumatism, backaches, kidney and bladder ailments; and Foley Cathartic Tablets, a wholesome and thoroughly cleansing cathartic, especially comforting to stout persons.—Sold by L. B. Anderson, Gainesboro, Tenn.

FOR PAST AND FUTURE

Among the many blessings for which we have to be thankful during this glad New Year season, the confidence and support of our many loyal and true friends and customers stands out before us the greatest. And the fact that we have striven hard to merit this confidence in no way detracts from the pleasure of knowing that it has been accorded us.

In entering upon another year of service to the people of Gainesboro and Jackson county our earnest hope is that a kind Providence may bring to one and all its richest gifts, and that the cordial relations heretofore existing between you and us may be materially strengthened as the months go by.

Yours for Happiness and Prosperity
throughout the year,

McDearman-Stafford Co.

Your Good Will Valued

That some capital and much energy are necessary to the success of any business venture goes without saying. But there is one other element that is even more necessary to success, and that is public confidence and good will.

That I have been so fortunate as to command the confidence and good will of the people of this community is matter of just pride to me. That I have had your cordial support and patronage is also a matter of self-congratulation.

For it all I wish herewith to tender my sincere thanks, and to wish for one and all continued prosperity and happiness.

Hoping that our relations may ever remain both pleasant and profitable to each of us, I beg to remain,

YOURS FOR CONTINUED SUCCESS,

JAMES WASHBURN

Greetings TO YOU

To our patrons and friends we bring greetings.

May a benign Providence smile kindly upon you during the years to come, and may your fondest hopes be realized.

For the generous measure of good will and patronage you have accorded us, we wish to tender our heartfelt thanks and appreciation. Your good will is dear to us and you will ever find us striving more and more to merit the same.

That our future relations may be equally satisfactory to both, is the wish of
